Description

Roman House comprises a terrace of 4 recently refurbished industrial warehouse units on a self-contained site in an established business location. The property is of truss-frame construction under a pitched sheet roof with the elevations having recently been over-clad with profile steel sheets. The unit provides clear span storage/production space.

The unit benefits from a large electric roller shutter, a new WC, tea-point and its own 3-phase power supply.

Location

The Property is situated towards the end of Temple Bank. Temple Bank is just off Riverway within the heart of the Templefields industrial area, and therefore enjoys good road access to the M11 via the A414.

The M11 intersects with the M25, approximately 5 miles to the South and Stansted International Airport is located just off J8 of the M11, which is approximately 10 miles north of J7. Harlow Mill railway station serving London Liverpool Street via Tottenham Hale (Victoria Line) is within easy walking distance of the property.
