DESCRIPTION

Located in the very heart of Notting Hill, just off Westbourne Grove and a stone's throw from the likes of Daylesford Organic and Aesop, this beautifully refurbished retail premises offers exceptional design and character throughout.

The property is arranged over ground and lower ground floors, having recently undergone a first-rate refurbishment. The space has been thoughtfully redesigned to include an impressive glass balustrade with a cast-iron staircase leading to the lower ground floor.

Throughout both levels, feature brick-slip walls and underfloor heating create a warm, contemporary feel. Fitted kitchens are provided on each floor, and the rear terrace, accessed via full height sliding glass doors, offers excellent natural light and a tranquil setting.

The ground floor boasts exceptional ceiling heights with both front and rear aspects providing superb daylight. The lighting scheme combines pendant and spot lighting on the ground floor with track lighting on the lower ground, enhancing the property's versatile appeal.

Externally, the building features a brand-new frontage, freshly painted in a striking India Yellow - Farrow and Ball, ensuring strong street presence in this highly sought-after location.
