Location

The affluent town of Guildford is the principal centre for Surrey and one of the UK's premier commercial centres outside of the M25. The town is the home of the University of Surrey, one of Guildford's largest employers, and is located approximately 33 miles south west of London and enjoys excellent road access with dual carriageway access via the A3 to the M25, just an 8 mile drive away. Guildford benefits from direct rail services into London Waterloo with a journey time of approximately 40 minutes. Heathrow and Gatwick Airports are within a 25-minute drive time. Guildford has the largest population within Surrey with a primary catchment population of approximately 507,000.

Situation

The property is easily accessible located just 2.5 miles South of Guildford Town Centre accessed directly off the A3100 (Old Portsmouth Road). The property sits among an established commercial area comprising several well-known brands including Skoda, Harley Davidson, Volkswagen, Shell and Howdens.

The surrounding area comprises a mix of industrial, trade counter, residential and care home uses.

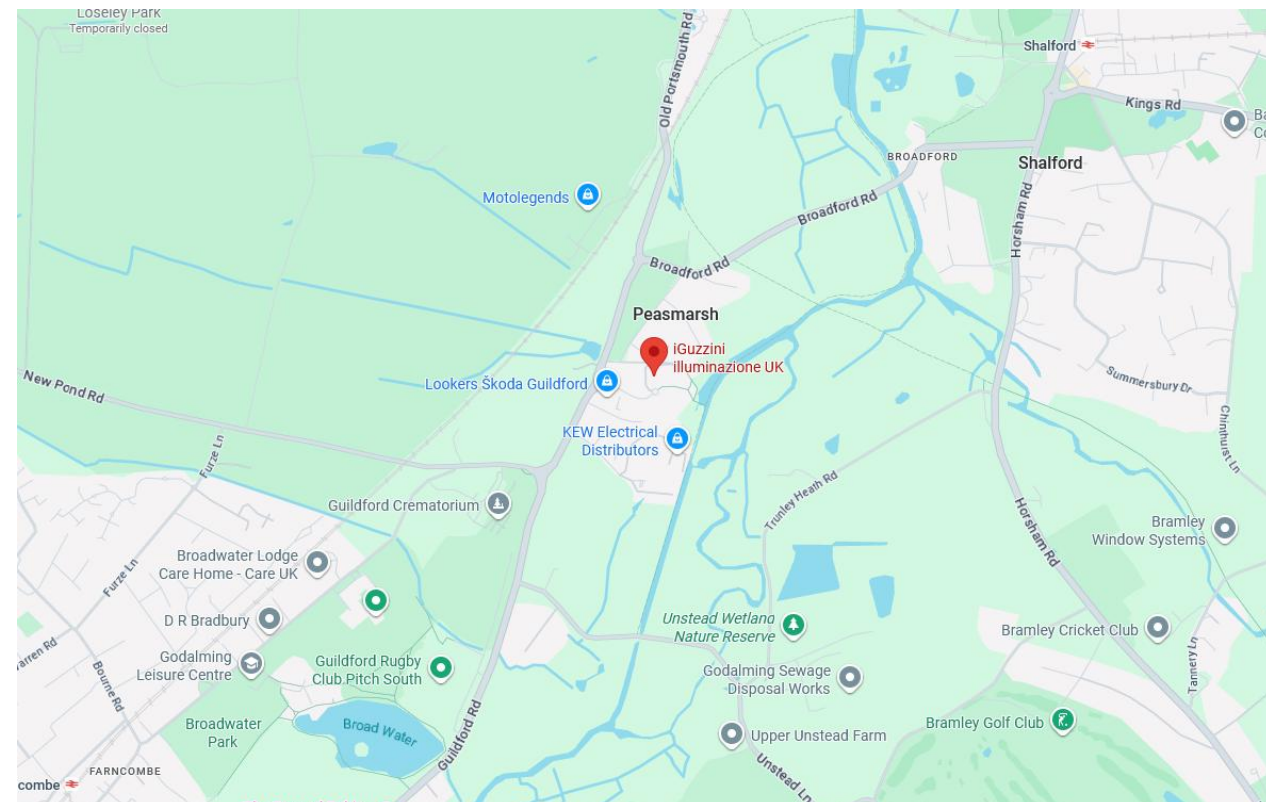

The Site

The 2.97-acre site comprises a modern warehouse to the north with a "C" shaped office building to the south together with ample parking and a landscaped area laid out to lawn, along with 76 parking spaces.

Tenure

The site is to be sold freehold with vacant possession on completion. Part of the warehouse is let on a lease outside the L&T Act 1954, but possession can be obtained. Further details from the agents.
