Arc Logistics Park combines grade-A warehouse units with an adjacent Ecology Park to create an enhanced logistics development with 'green' breakout space. The Ecology Park includes; wildflower grassland maximising biodiversity, that included the installation of a butterfly bank to promote priority species and habitat piles to provide habitat for invertebrate species.

Sustainable features include photovoltaics on every building, LED lighting and the installation of EV charging points, all of which contribute to a reduction in energy use and CO2. Natural light flooding through large windows combined with generous roof-lights in the warehouse reduces the amount of energy needed for lighting - and makes the buildings a more pleasant space to work in.

Location

ARC is strategically located off the A228 provided fast access to both the M20, M2 and M25 motorways, essential for distribution and logistics companies serving London and the wider South East. The Channel Tunnel, and Kent Ports are all within an hour's drive, providing access to Europe and beyond. With 35 million people living within 4.5 hours'

ARC boasts strong public transport links, Snodland railway station 1.1 miles away, and local bus routes close by, plus on site food facilities provided by McDonald's and Costa.

Larkfield and Snodland as a strategic location has attracted both National and local occupiers that include Swegon, Amazon, Brakes, BT, DFS, Dixons KnowHow, DPD, Euro Car, Parts, Kier, Polypipe, SIG, Tesco, Waitrose, Marley and XPO.
