MATRIX PARK

The property is situated on Western Avenue, offering access to the A49, which subsequently leads to the M6 motorway.

It lies within the Matrix Park area, forming the northern part of Buckshaw Village, strategically positioned between the M6 and M61 motorways.

Matrix Park and Buckshaw village have attracted high profile occupiers including Waitrose, Baxi, Parcelforce, Royal Mail, Kimberley Clarke, Vernacare, Pet Foods, TVS and Conair.

Buckshaw Village is a 202-hectare (500-acre) mixed-use development, incorporating commercial spaces at Buckshaw Link and Matrix Park, alongside approximately 2,000 new residential units, a hotel, a Tesco supermarket and the Buckshaw Parkway railway station, which provides convenient links to both Preston and Manchester City Centre.

LOCATION

Situated just off the M61 motorway, Matrix Park is a premier business park in the heart of Chorley, Lancashire.

Offering a range of modern office spaces and industrial units, the park is designed to cater to businesses of all sizes, from startups to large enterprises.

The location benefits from excellent transport links, with easy access to major roads and public transport, making it an ideal hub for both local and national operations. Surrounded by scenic countryside, Matrix Park provides a peaceful yet connected environment for businesses to thrive.

With a growing range of amenities, including cafes and retail outlets, Matrix Park ensures that companies and their employees enjoy a productive and comfortable working environment. Additionally, the park is home to a variety of leading tech, industrial, and commercial companies, fostering a dynamic and collaborative atmosphere.
