Location

Mansfield is one of Nottinghamshire’s largest towns and the principal commercial centre for the north of the county, with a district population of c.110,500 and excellent connectivity via the A38, A617 and Junction 28 of the M1.

Berry Hill Local Centre anchors the wider Berry Hill masterplan — a major residential-led development on Mansfield’s southern edge. Occupying a prominent roadside position at the A617 Sherwood Way East / Adamsway junction, the scheme benefits from over 27,000 vehicles per day and serves c.1,700 new homes alongside a new primary school, nursery, care home and community facilities.
