CHANGE FOR THE BETTER

CHANGE ESTABLISHED

Directly adjacent to Snow Hill railway station, Interchange proudly stands at the heart of the renowned Colmore Business District, Birmingham's thriving business destination.

Just a stone's throw away from the city's major retail and leisure amenities, it's an enviable location that's as lively after work as it is during office hours.

A clad metal exterior presents a prominent and striking street presence, dominating the corner of Livery Street and Edmund Street, whilst a large floating entrance sign invites occupiers and guests into the remodelled entrance and occupiers amenity facilities.

CHANGE YOUR VIEW

A newly refurbished, welcoming reception and seating area creates a positive first impression for visitors to Interchange.

Sitting alongside this, a bright and airy amenity space invites occupiers to take time out from the hubbub of the office environment.

It offers the perfect spot for solo thinking time or an informal place for project teams to grab a coffee and collaborate.

For larger gatherings, well-appointed meeting rooms are available, equipped with state-of-the-art AV capabilities, that can be enlarged to create an impressive townhall space.

CHANGE OF PACE

The ground floor of Interchange is designed to cater to the wellbeing of its occupants while providing a contemporary working environment.

It features an expansive breakout area that offers a relaxing environment for socialising or taking time away from the office, as well as flexible meeting rooms that can be adapted to suit various needs.

CHANGE FOR THE BETTER

Interchange benefits from the full range of commercially-savvy amenities that will meet the needs of you and your staff.

With a focus on occupier wellbeing, Interchange offers the ideal mix of both traditional and new facilities in a complete package.

This includes a basement amenity hub with cycle storage, access-controlled showers and changing facilities, a drying room, as well as a cycle maintenance point with a suite of tools such as a pump, screwdriver, spanner and alan keys.

By catering to the needs of those working at Interchange, our aim is to make the space not just safe and secure, but a natural hub from which people can plan their daily activities, including their commute.

CHANGE OF SCENERY

Birmingham continues to evolve and Interchange takes its rightful place in this dynamic landscape.

In the centre of the Colmore Business District, it has the ability to offer occupiers and their visitors the very best that the UK's second city has to offer.

And, with rail, tram and bus connections just a two-minute walk away, it's a truly connected place.

From hotels, cafés, bars and restaurants to bespoke retailers, markets and malls such as Bullring and Mailbox, Interchange is at the heart of everything that matters in Birmingham.
