DESCRIPTION

The subjects occupy the ground floor within a 2-storey traditional building, surmounted by a flat roof.

The subjects were previously occupied by West Dunbartonshire Council and are arranged to provide a spacious open plan office, with kitchen, toilet and shower facilities to the rear.

Access is available from Sylvania Way via a double entrance door, protected by roller shutters within a shared entrance foyer which is interconnected with Clydebank Co-operative Society.

Additional access to the premises is on the east elevation onto a shared yard, leading to a communal car park. Allocated parking may be provided on request.
