DESCRIPTION

23 York Street is an unbroken freehold building comprising six residential units over lower ground, ground, and three upper floors extending to 2,362 sqft (NSA) in the heart of Marylebone. The property includes 4x one-bedroom apartments and 2x studios, with the lower ground flat benefiting from a private rear terrace/garden.

Flat C requires full modernisation, while the other units offer scope for light refurbishment. The property is partially occupied, with four units currently vacant. The neighbouring properties act as a precedent for potential to add an additional storey and to increase space in the vault, in the garden/terrace and on the 1st floor mezzanine roof (STPP).

Centrally located, the property is close to Marylebone's shops, transport links, and luxurious amenities.
