Description

An attractive commercial investment property situated in the popular Kirkland area of Kendal, currently let as office accommodation. The property is let to an established office occupier from March 2023 on a 3-year lease, generating a passing rent of £6,500 per annum. Sympathetically modernised to a good standard, the premises benefit from a recently installed MEV heating system (certification available upon request). While updated, the property retains its character features, including exposed ceiling beams. The internal layout provides versatile accommodation comprising: A self-contained office to the right-hand side upon entry, with a glazed window frontage onto Kirkland. Two steps leading down to an open-plan workspace with kitchenette and attractive window aspect overlooking the adjacent beck, a further small, self-contained office and WC facilities.

The combination of character features and modern upgrades, together with its established tenancy, makes this an appealing investment opportunity in a sought-after central location.

Location

Located in Kirkland, known as the Creative Quarter, in the southern end of Kendal's town centre. Situated on the one way system into town in an area of mixed use independent retailers and office occupiers. Kendal is serviced by two train stations - Kendal and Oxenholme, giving excellent rail links to the wider national network and a town centre bus station. The national motorway network is also close at hand with junctions 36 and 37 to the south.
