Residential Development Opportunity

Hewmar House, 120 London Road

Residential development opportunity with consent to develop 16 residential flats within Class C2 (Residential Institution) of the Use Classes Order 1987.

Location

Gloucester is located approximately 9 miles (14.5 km) west of Cheltenham, 35 miles (56.2 km) north of Bristol, 55 miles (88.5 km) south of Birmingham and 100 miles (161 km) west of London. Access to the motorway network is available at Junctions 11, 11A and 12 of the M5 and Junction 15 of the M4 at Swindon. The link to the M4 is via the A417/A419 trunk road.

Gloucester Railway Station provides direct services to London with journeys taking just under two hours, and both Gloucester and Cheltenham share a local airport at Staverton, approximately 8 miles away.

Hewmar House is situated on the southern side of London Road, which is one of the main routes in to the City centre, which is approximately ½ a mile to the west.

This part of London Road is a mixed residential and commercial area, and the property is adjacent to St Margaret's Chapel and its ancillary Listed Alms Houses. Further to the south, on London Road, at the City end are a number of modern office buildings including the Headquarters of BBC Radio Gloucestershire and numerous small retail units.

Description

Hewmar House comprises a detached building of brick construction with rendered walls under a pitched tiled roof. The accommodation is over two floors and comprise of a range of offices, kitchenette and WC facilities.

The property was heated by way of a gas fired central heating system via radiators and the majority of the windows are UPVC double glazed. It is accessed along a private lane and parking is provided to the front and side. The property is in need of refurbishment throughout.
