Location

Located in the county of Bedfordshire, Luton is a one of the largest towns in the UK without city status. The town has exceptional connectivity, benefitting from an international airport and 3 train stations with high-speed services to London St Pancras. Furthermore, the town is served by various arterial routes, notably the M1 (J10, J11 & J11A), the A505 and the A6.

The town is subject to major investment, with number of key development sites underway and in the pipeline. Firstly, the proposed expansion of London Luton Airport. Secondly, Power Court, which is to house a new stadium and will be the new home of Luton Town Football Club. Thirdly, the former Bute Street carpark, which is to house a new performing arts venue called The Stage and a mixture of residential and commercial premises. Lastly, Junction, a high spec logistics park adjacent to Junction 10 of the M1.

Building 210 at The Village is situated at the Butterfield Business Park, to the north of the town and just off the A505. The following are within proximity:

- London Luton Airport – 4 miles
- Luton Parkway Station – 4 miles
- M1 – 5 miles
- A1(M) – 8 miles
- M25 – 14 miles
