LOCATION

The parade occupies a prominent position on York Way within the London Borough of Islington, an established mixed-use location situated between King's Cross, Kentish Town and Camden Town.

York Way is a well-connected arterial route benefitting from a range of local amenities, strong residential catchments and sustained occupational demand. The surrounding area offers an extensive range of amenities, supporting strong residential and commercial occupier demand. Nearby retail and leisure provision includes Coal Drops Yard, Granary Square and the wider King's Cross regeneration area, which has transformed into one of London's premier mixed-use districts.

CONNECTIVITY

392-396 York Way has strong public transport connectivity, with London Underground and rail links easily accessible from nearby stations.

The closest stations are Camden Road (Overground) and Caledonian Road (Piccadilly Line), both around a 14-minute walk. Kentish Town (Northern Line and Thameslink) is approximately 15 minutes on foot, and King's Cross St Pancras is within easy reach, offering Underground, National Rail and Eurostar connections.
