DESCRIPTION

This unique, self-contained ground and lower ground floor retail premises is situated in the heart of Soho and offers an impressive and characterful trading environment.

The accommodation benefits from a striking cast-iron staircase connecting the ground and lower ground floors, while an impressive rear skylight floods the premises with natural light and helps create a bright, open feel throughout.

The ground floor features attractive engineered timber flooring, spot lighting throughout and excellent street frontage, providing strong visibility and an impressive shopfront presence.

The combination of character features, natural light and strong frontage makes the premises well suited to a variety of retail, showroom and other Class E occupiers.
