Description

The available accommodation comprises a self-contained E-Class premises arranged over ground floor and basement levels. Situated within an established parade of shops, the property has recently been refurbished by the freeholder and benefits from the installation of a new extraction system. The unit further benefits from a rear yard, gas supply, three-phase electricity, air conditioning, and WC facilities. The specification makes it particularly well suited to a small restaurant, café, or similar operator seeking a ready-to-occupy space.

Location

Located on the south side of Hooper Street at its junction with Leman Street, the property occupies a prominent corner position within a well-established mixed-use area. The surrounding locality comprises a strong mix of office buildings, residential developments and ground floor commercial occupiers, providing steady footfall throughout the week. The property is well positioned between Aldgate and Whitechapel, with excellent transport links nearby. Tower Gateway DLR station and Aldgate East station are both within walking distance, offering convenient access across Central London and Docklands.
