Description

AN EXCELLENT OPPORTUNITY TO ACQUIRE AN ATTRACTIVE OFFICE PROPERTY ON BILLING ROAD WITH THE POTENTIAL FOR RESIDENTIAL CONVERSION (STPP)

A handsome period town house in a sought after location with a mix of office and residential properties within the area.

The property retains an impressive façade and prominent bay windows with period detailing, providing distinctive office accommodation in its existing use.

The scale and configuration of the building, together with the surrounding mix of uses along Billing Road, also offers potential for conversion to residential accommodation*

Externally, the property benefits from dedicated on-site car parking, accessed via a shared driveway to the rear, with rights to six parking spaces as set out within the title documentation.

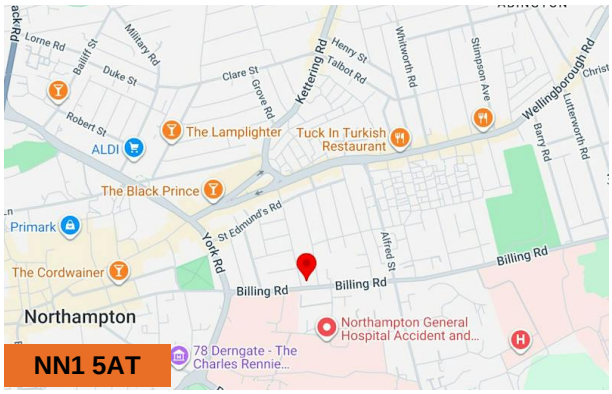

Location

Northampton is a major commercial centre in the heart of the Midlands, benefiting from excellent road and rail connectivity and a diverse business base. Billing Road is one of the town's most established and prestigious locations, characterised by an attractive mix of period properties accommodating professional offices, healthcare and residential uses.

Its close proximity to Northampton Town Centre, together with convenient access to the wider road network and local amenities, makes Billing Road an attractive location for both commercial occupiers and residential purchasers.
