Location

The property is situated on the east side of Bailey Street, a busy arterial main road through the centre of Oswestry.

Oswestry is a historic market town located in northwest Shropshire, England, close to the Welsh border. Situated in the scenic Marches region, it lies approximately 18 miles northwest of Shrewsbury, 5 miles from the Welsh border, and benefits from its position at the junction of the A5, A483, and A495 roads. The town has a rich mixed English-Welsh heritage and serves as a natural gateway between England and North Wales.

The town has a resident population of approximately 17,500 – 18,200 (2021–2024 figures). It acts as an important retail, service, and employment hub for a wide rural catchment area across northwest Shropshire and parts of northeast Wales, with a potential catchment population of around 350,000 within a 45-minute drive. Transport links are strong by road, with excellent access to the national motorway network via the A5 and A483. The nearest mainline railway station is at Gobowen (approx. 2–3 miles away), providing services to Shrewsbury, Chester, Birmingham, and beyond,

VIEWING

Whilst it is a good idea to visit a property investment that is being marketed for sale as a customer before making a formal viewing, it is vitally important that such visits are carried out confidentially and that no approach is made to the staff, operators or customers of the business.

Many investments are being marketed confidentially and the staff and locals may not know that the property is on the market, therefore a casual approach can adversely affect the business
