Description

Working in a distinctive setting adds instant credibility when meeting with clients - St Georges House delivers just that with bright and modern serviced offices which feature a striking curved communal space that blends contemporary deign with professional flair.

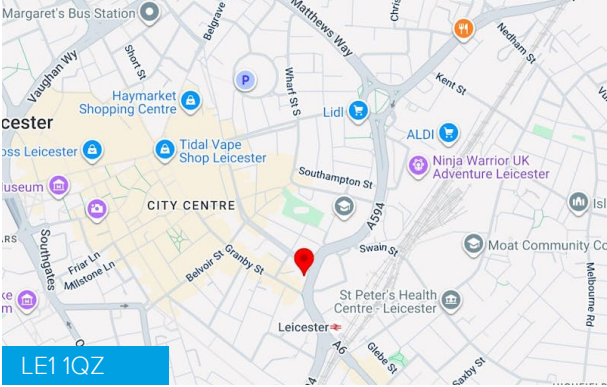

Choose a dedicated hot desk, host meetings on the rooftop with panoramic city views and enjoy the convenience of on-site showers, secure bicycle storage and ample parking.

Location

St. Georges House has a prime location in Leicester city centre, located along St. Georges Way. The building benefits from outstanding transport links, with the Charles Street (Stand EC) bus stop just 200 feet away and Leicester Railway Station is only 0.1 miles from the site, providing fast and convenient access in and around the city. A wide range of shops, bars, restaurants, entertainment venues and hotels are all within walking distance.

The A5460 is just 2 miles to the west, offering direct access to the M1 north and south bound. The M1 itself is only 4.2 miles southwest of the property, allowing easy access to major cities such as Birmingham, Manchester and London.

Additionally, East Midlands Airport is 21 miles North from the building.
