Description

An exceptional opportunity at the heart of a new landmark London redevelopment. 100 New Bridge Street presents three exclusive retail units (capable of amalgamation if required) at the base of a comprehensively re-imagined 195,000 sq. ft office destination.

This is a unique opportunity to capitalise on a professional audience from the best-in-class workspace above, and in the surrounding buildings while capturing the consistently strong footfall from the adjacent City Thameslink and Blackfriars Stations.

Location

The property is anchored at one of London's most connected and commercially powerful locations.

It is flanked by the world-renowned headquarters of Unilever and financial corporation Goldman Sachs, with the prestigious legal chambers of Fleet Street and the Old bailey also nearby. Creating an exceptionally high value professional audience.
