LOCATION

The attractive Isle of Bute is situated off the highly scenic west coast of Scotland. The island is easily reachable by ferry, the main crossing being from Wemyss Bay on the mainland to Rothesay. Wemyss Bay is accessible from Glasgow city centre with regular rail and bus services, together with excellent road communications.

Rothesay is the principal town on the Isle of Bute. At the centre of the town is Rothesay Castle, a ruin which dates back to the 13th century. The town is regarded as a highly popular tourist destination, particularly from residents of the west coast of Scotland. In addition, due to the location of the island, off the west coast of Scotland, the town is highly popular with sailors benefiting from the attractive sailing routes along the Western Kyles. Specifically, the Esplanade Hotel is situated in a prime position within the centre of the town, directly opposite the Ferry Terminal. The premises, therefore, benefit from significant pedestrian and vehicular traffic flow. There is no doubt that the subjects benefit from a first class trading location, able to draw on many income drivers

PROPERTY

The Esplanade Hotel is arranged over part-ground, first, second and part-attic floors of a three-storey and attic stone constructed building, under a pitched roof, clad externally in slate. In addition, there are a variety of extensions situated to the rear. There is a large lobby area arranged over the ground floor, with staircase access to the first floor. Thereafter, there is further accesses to the upper floors

The property benefits from a large entrance lobby, with open staircase leading to the first floor accommodation. The restaurant / bar provides virtually full height windows to the front, providing highly attractive views over the Firth of Clyde. Seating is provided for approximately 60 persons from a mix of loose timber tables and chairs. A bar servery is set to one side. The bar/restaurant benefits from timber floors and high plastered ceilings.
