Description

An income-producing freehold in the centre of Slough. The ground floor is a restaurant trading as S.K.V.P, and above is a separate one-bedroom maisonette with its own street entrance. Combined rent is £35,800 a year.

Accommodation & Tenancies

Ground floor restaurant – about 453 sq ft (42.13 sq m). Rent £20,500 pax under a 15-year lease from 12/07/2013 till July 2028. The lease was assigned to SJS Holdings Ltd, operator of roughly 22 S.K.V.P outlets across the country, with the previous tenant SKVP (Slough) Limited providing an Authorised Guarantee Agreement.

First floor flat – about 592 sq ft (55.00 sq m). A one-bedroom flat let on a former Assured Shorthold Tenancy from 20/09/2025 at £1,275 pcm (£15,300 a year).

Floor areas taken from the Valuation Office Agency and EPC Register.

Planning

There may be scope to add a further flat by raising the roof. Consent for this was granted in the past (ref. P/07171/005) but has since expired, so a fresh application would be needed. Buyers should check with Slough Borough Council.

Location

The building sits just off Slough High Street, close to both the Observatory and Queensmere shopping centres. Queensmere is being redeveloped by Berkeley Homes into new housing, shops and public space, which should bring more people into this part of town. Primark, Boots, Iceland, McDonald's and Nando's are all close by.

Slough station is within walking distance, with the Elizabeth Line and GWR trains reaching Paddington in about 17 minutes. Road links are good via the A4 and junction 6 of the M4, and Heathrow is around 5 miles away.
