Description

The property is a two-storey mid terrace building of brick construction beneath a flat roof. The subject of this letting is the ground floor former gymnasium premises, which is accessed via electric roller shutter security door fronting Rutland Street. Internally the premises is largely open plan, with small entrance foyer leading to the main gymnasium room, with small storage cupboard to the rear and kitchen/toilet facilities off to the side. Additionally, the unit provides a generous 3.8 metre ceiling height.

It is a highly versatile commercial/industrial premises situated in a well-established business pocket within the City of Salford, Greater Manchester. Perfectly bridging the gap between urban accessibility and industrial functionality, this location offers an ideal base for light manufacturing, logistics, studio space, or business storage.

Location

Rutland Street is characterized by a thriving mix of light industrial units, trade counters, and creative workspaces, successfully hosting notable local operators like Mariyka's Dance Studios (above) and Furry Dog Mother nearby.

The property benefits from excellent transport links as follows:

- Rail Access: The property sits exceptionally close to Swinton (Manchester) Train Station, positioned just 0.3 miles (a 5-minute walk) to the south-west, providing rapid, direct commuter links to Manchester Victoria and the wider North West rail network.
- Arterial Road Network: Positioned just minutes from the major A580 (East Lancashire Road), providing an immediate, direct dual-carriageway route into Manchester city centre and a fast link to the regional highway infrastructure.
- Motorway Proximity: The site benefits from swift access to the M60 orbital motorway (Junction 13/14) and the M61, allowing seamless logistics distribution and vehicle transit across Greater Manchester, Cheshire, and Lancashire.
