Description

The Work Station has helped shape the creative legacy of Sheffield. It continues to be the home of independent businesses through offering flexible work spaces, where services charges and broadband provision are included in the monthly rentals. The suites available from time to time vary from small spaces perfect for solo founders, freelancers and creatives - to more spacious suites (ideal for growing teams).

Location

The Work Station is part of the Showroom building with independent cinema and cafe bar. Located in the Cultural Industries Quarter, it is right next to Sheffield's train station (with tram stop) and bus interchange. It is therefore fully connected to the wider immediate region.
