Description

Since 1881, this Grade II listed warehouse has been recognised as one of the most architecturally exceptional Shoreditch buildings. The Harrison makes sure it stays that way.

Built together, through a collaborative partnership of industry leaders. Remembering the past, enhancing the present and protecting the future, to create a workplace that is holistically sustainable, crafted, and simply charming – on every level.

At the epicentre of Shoreditch, The Harrison is still considered one of the finest examples of Victorian engineering prowess. Originally designed by Richard Crease Harrison & Son, the warehouse and showroom was built as a single block between 1881 and 1882. In 1887, it was developed further and extended. Furniture of all types has been manufactured and distributed throughout the British Empire from this very building

The Harrison enhances and celebrates original features and London stock brickwork, while making sure the building speaks to its modern surroundings.

Each space is entirely unique, having been restored in such a way as to capture the distinctive character of the original design. To achieve the unexpected, Anomaly redefined the concept of sustainability, putting environmental considerations at the heart of every decision.

Location

Curtain Road is located in the heart of Shoreditch, EC2, one of London's most vibrant and dynamic areas. Known for its wide mix of creative industries, tech start-ups, and trendy bars and restaurants, Shoreditch is a prime destination for both business and leisure.

The area is well-served by public transport, with several stations within walking distance. The closest stations are Old Street Station, Shoreditch High Street Station and Liverpool Street Station.

Introducing the makers

Petr Esposito

Founding Director, Anomaly

Tasked with reinventing and rejuvenating one of Shoreditch's most iconic buildings, Anomaly has challenged the very nature of architectural design and refurbishment.

Working in close collaboration with the London Borough of Hackney and paying utmost respect to the protected nature of one of the area's best preserved and most well-known warehouse complexes, Anomaly has created a new and vibrant space that defies expectation.

- 1 Forward looking, not forgotten
The Harrison enhances and celebrates original features and London stock brickwork, while making sure the building speaks to its modern surroundings.
- 2 Exceptional in every detail
Each space is entirely unique, having been restored in such a way as to capture the distinctive character of the original design.
- 3 Start with sustainability
To achieve the unexpected, Anomaly redefined the concept of sustainability, putting environmental considerations at the heart of every decision.

ANOMALY “Our internal mantra is; in a world of expectation, we aim to deliver the unexpected, we’re proud to say this development encapsulates exactly that. It challenges how things have been done before – it’s truly set apart from anything within our industry.”

Petr Esposito
Founding Director, Anomaly

Continuing the tradition of the best Victorian craftsmanship. The Harrison cements a listed legacy.

Altogether crafted

The pursuit of perfection and play

The Harrison isn't just an office building; it's a testament to doing things differently. We're all about craftsmanship and meticulous detail, mirroring the dedication of the artisans in our vibrant home, Shoreditch.

The pursuit of perfection and play

A colour palette that speaks to its Victorian past. A perfection of craft that speaks to the present. A focus on the highest quality that speaks to its legacy as a protected part of Shoreditch's culture.

Every detail—from the aged brass balustrades in reception to the warming, textural timber used throughout—is finished to perfection, with a focus on recycled or recyclable, and reclaimed materials.

Original heritage features have been carefully removed, refurbished, and reinstalled, while brand new elements such as high-spec end of journey facilities have been introduced to suit a modern workspace and meet the needs of a modern workforce.

- 1 Exposed services & industrial detailing
- 2 Resorted heritage ironwork
- 3 Exposed brickwork & sash windows
- 4 Secure, high-quality cycle storage facilities
- 5 High-spec end-of-journey facilities
- 6 Brass detailing with terrazzo steps
