Description

The North Pole dates back to the heyday of the London docks in 1860, and is one of the last remaining public houses located on the Isle of Dogs. The pub closed in May 2014 to allow for the now completed building works surrounding it.

The pub overlooks a newly landscaped square and is central to the wider Aspen redevelopment by Far East Consortium (FEC) featuring 637 residential apartments, ground floor commercial units and a newly opened 231 room 4* Dorsett hotel.

Location

The North Pole Pub is perfectly positioned within one of London's most dynamic and well-connected districts.

This location benefits from exceptional transport links, with South Quay DLR, Canary Wharf Underground, and Crossrail stations all within walking distance, offering seamless access to central London and beyond.

The surrounding area is undergoing rapid transformation, attracting a vibrant mix of residents, professionals, and visitors.

Accommodation

The accommodation comprises the following areas:

Name	sq ft	sq m
Basement	536	49.80
Ground	1,036	96.25
