Description

This stunning self-contained office, located in the heart of Shoreditch offers a blend of historic character alongside modern design. The converted warehouse space, originally built in the 1880s has recently undergone a high quality refurbishment, ultimately preserving its original charm while introducing contemporary finishes throughout.

The office benefits from engineered wooden flooring, arched sash windows that allows for excellent natural light throughout. Alongside a large kitchen providing high functionality making this unit suitable for a variety of occupiers.
