LOCATION

The subjects lie within Earls Gate Park, which is situated to the south of Earls Road (A905) and immediately east of Beancross Road, lying directly adjacent to junction 6 of the M9 motorway.

The park provides a range of office and workshop/warehouse accommodation with occupiers including RSM, Inchcape, Samskip and Graypen Ltd.

Grangemouth itself comprises an established town within Central Scotland, lying on the southern banks of the River Forth, astride the A904 road route, approximately 3 miles east of Falkirk and some 20 miles west of Edinburgh.

The town provides a range of local authority and private housing stock together with appropriate retail, educational and local government facilities, having a resident population of approximately 18,000 people.

The town is home to one of the countries and indeed Europe’s largest petrochemical facilities as well as benefitting from a substantial port complex, each of which provide significant employment for the surrounding area.
