Description

This is a prominent unit within the estate being situated on the main access road. The accommodation is arranged internally to provide mainly production, trade or storage space with supporting facilities. The minimum eaves height is 6m and the roller shutter door is 4.5m wide by 5m high.

Location

Belleknowes Industrial Estate is one of the best located industrial locations in Fife being only half a mile from the Forth Road Bridge and the new Queensferry Crossing. The estate is situated on Junction 1 of the M90 and accessibility to the major cities in Scotland would be difficult to beat. The nearest railway station is at Inverkeithing which is within walking distance and provides direct service to Dunfermline and Edinburgh and is also situated on the main east coast line.

Edinburgh Airport is approximately 8 miles (20 minutes) drive away and the centre of Edinburgh is less than 30 minutes.

The Port of Rosyth is 2 miles to the south west and provides a ferry service to continental Europe.
