Description

The accommodation is thoughtfully arranged across the first and second floors, with access provided through an inviting and professionally presented ground floor entrance. Each suite is equipped with its own secure intercom system, offering occupiers and their guests both ease of access and an added sense of security. In addition, tenants can enjoy shared amenities, including a well-maintained communal area with a small kitchenette and separate male and female WC facilities.

The suites are to be refurbished with newly installed carpets, redecorated finishes, and re-screeded walls, creating a bright, modern, and professional environment. This comprehensive refresh ensures that the space is ready for immediate occupation, presenting an attractive, turnkey solution for businesses seeking quality office accommodation.

Location

The property occupies a prominent position at the very heart of Yeadon, directly fronting the busy High Street and only moments from the Harper Lane roundabout—one of the town’s key junctions. This highly visible spot benefits from constant passing traffic and steady pedestrian flows.

Yeadon is just eight miles north-west of Leeds city centre and a short drive from Leeds Bradford Airport, making it easily accessible for commuters, clients, and visitors. Strong transport links to surrounding towns and regional routes further enhance its appeal as a business base.

Yeadon High Street is a well-established retail and business hub, anchored by Morrisons Supermarket and supported by household names such as Costa Coffee, Greggs, William Hill, and Barnardo’s. Alongside these are a wide range of independent cafés, salons, boutiques, and professional services, creating a vibrant and community-focused atmosphere.
