DESCRIPTION

Draycott Mews is an attractive, newly refurbished, private gated mews development comprising five self-contained commercial units arranged around a central courtyard. The buildings benefit from excellent natural light, generous floor-to-ceiling heights and flexible open-plan layouts capable of accommodating a range of occupiers. The mews is well maintained throughout and provides an attractive setting for office, studio, showroom and creative workspace uses.

Access is provided via secure gates directly from New Kings Road, creating a discreet yet highly accessible business environment. The central courtyard enhances the sense of privacy while offering an attractive arrival experience for occupiers and visitors alike.

LOCATION

Draycott Mews occupies a highly desirable position just off New Kings Road in the heart of Fulham. The area is exceptionally well connected, with Parsons Green Underground Station (District Line) and Putney Bridge Underground Station within easy walking distance, providing direct access to Central London and the West End. Numerous bus routes also operate along New Kings Road, while the A219 offers convenient road links to Central London, the A3 and the wider motorway network.
