LOCATION

The property is situated on the north west side of Alva Street, close to its junction with Queensferry Street within the west end of Edinburgh City.

Located a short walk from Shandwick Place and Princes Street, the property is ideally placed for business or personal use with surrounding occupiers a mixture of residential dwellings and commercial operations. The west end is highly sought after, with its quiet streets and stunning architecture of traditional sandstone buildings being in close proximity to all amenities.

PROPERTY

The property forms a substantial 4 storey townhouse of traditional sandstone construction surmounted by a mansard style roof overlaid in slate.

Retaining many original features, the property has been delicately upgraded by the vendor, whilst sympathetically incorporating the stunning original features.

Entering to the beautifully presented vestibule with warm timber flooring complimenting the colour scheme throughout. The property offers flexible business space, with kitchen facilities and meeting room located in the lower ground which benefits from independent access from Alva Street or indeed from the dedicated parking area to the rear.
