DESCRIPTION

The unit comprises first-floor office accommodation situated above ground-floor commercial premises in the heart of Chiswick. The offices are accessed via a shared entrance serving the upper floor, which also provides access to the residential flats above.

The accommodation is arranged as two well-proportioned office rooms with good natural light, providing flexible workspace suitable for a range of occupiers including professional practices, consultants, and small businesses. The second office leads to a fitted kitchen and WC.

Some businesses might benefit from small business rate relief but are advised to rely on their own enquiries with via the London Borough of Hounslow.

LOCATION

The property enjoys excellent transport connectivity. Turnham Green Underground Station (District Line) is within a short walking distance, providing direct access to Central London, while nearby Gunnersbury Station offers both District Line and London Overground services. The location also benefits from numerous bus routes along Chiswick High Road and convenient road access to the A4/M4, A316, and North Circular, providing efficient connections to Central London, Heathrow Airport, and the wider motorway network.

The space is surrounded by an established mix of national retailers, independent boutiques, cafés, restaurants, and lifestyle operators.
