LOCATION

The High Street and the surrounding area provide an eclectic mix of uses and both national and local / independent occupiers. Notable occupiers in the immediate vicinity include Boots, Fat Face, RBS and Greggs.

Peebles is an attractive market town situated in an area of outstanding beauty on the banks of the River Tweed and Eddleston Water 23 miles south of Edinburgh. The town is the third largest in the Scottish Borders with a population in excess of 8,000 people and a wide surrounding rural carenment area. It is popular for its accessibility and proximity to Edinburgh and also as a year round tourist destination for its picturesque and unspoilt character. Peebles has a long history dating back to the 12th Century when the town was awarded its status of Royal Burgh. The entire town centre forms part of Lae reeves conservation.
