DESCRIPTION

Set within a historic former Spitfire factory, this impressive first-floor office space combines industrial character with modern finishes. The accommodation is arranged over the main first floor and a striking mezzanine level, with ceiling heights reaching up to 3.67m. Large windows to the front and rear flood the space with natural light, creating a bright and open working environment.

The office has been comprehensively refurbished to provide high-quality, plug-and-play accommodation. It benefits from new LED lighting, perimeter power and data trunking, luxury vinyl tile (LVT) flooring, serviced air conditioning units (not tested), a newly fitted kitchen, and private WC facilities.

The space is accessed via both a passenger lift and an internal staircase, offering a great mix of original industrial features and modern office specification. It's well suited to a range of occupiers, including creative, technology, media, design, architectural, showroom, and professional businesses looking for distinctive workspace with real character.

LOCATION

The building is situated on Hatton Street between Frampton Street and Boscobel Street close to Church Street market being less than 5 minutes walk to Edgware Road Underground Station (Bakerloo, Hammersmith & city, Circle and District Lines). Maida Vale & Little Venice are close by, including the famous Clifton Nurseries.
