Summary

Available Size	1,732 to 2,438 sq ft
EPC Rating	Property graded as B-C (40-65)

Description

Saddlers Halt is a desirable period property with a recently built detached office building in the rear courtyard. The main house is listed and dates from the 1800's and follows a classic Georgian design. The ground floor of the old house comprises four large rooms currently in mixed commercial use, whilst the first floor is laid out as a single self-contained two-bedroom flat. A classic period retail unit, currently in use as a cafe, is joined to the main house by a gated archway which provides covered seating. The whole is let and income producing.

Location

The property occupies a prominent position on the High Street in Chobham, which is an affluent Surrey village near Woking with easy access to both the M3 and M25, but benefits from a rural setting adjacent to Chobham Common in Surrey Heath.
