Description

Join a bold new neighbourhood designed for Brighton's thinkers, makers and tastemakers.

Edward Street Quarter is a landmark development in the heart of Kemptown, moments from the American Express HQ and close to the University of Brighton and Brighton College. It delivers 125,000 sq ft of premium office space with a working population exceeding 4,000, alongside 168 new homes and 45,000 sq ft dedicated to retail, restaurant and leisure opportunities.

This is a place where best-in-class operators can thrive, surrounded by a ready-made customer base, lush landscaped courtyards, and a buzzing community of creatives and professionals. Whether you are serving morning coffee, evening cocktails, boutique fashion or immersive experiences, Edward Street Quarter offers the footfall, visibility and energy to support ambitious brands.

Step into a district where culture, commerce and community come together.

Location

Edward Street lies on Brighton's vibrant east side. Once a narrow, character-filled thoroughfare lined with independent shops, its spirit lives on in today's lively mix of businesses and community spaces.

Nearby, you'll find places like Speakers Corner, a café and creative hub where food and ideas come together, and the Marlborough Pub & Theatre, hailed by The Guardian as "a refuge for cutting edge performance."

The area is home to major employers such as American Express and is well supported by popular independents like Brighton Bierhaus and Junkyard Dogs. Green spaces are plentiful, with Mighell Street Gardens and Dorset Gardens on the doorstep, and Queen's Park or the Royal Pavilion Gardens just a short stroll away.

Edward Street Quarter delivers a mix of high-quality homes, modern office space and vibrant retail, dining, medical and leisure opportunities, all in a walkable neighbourhood. Brighton Station is within easy reach, and BTN Bike Share is available just outside the development.

This is a community with deep roots and a dynamic future.
