Location

Bristol is the largest city in the South West region and is recognised as one of the main financial hubs outside London with a catchment population of approximately 800,000. The city has over 50,000 students enrolled at its two universities and attracts over 12m tourists annually. Bristol's bustling modern economy is rich with heritage, with new-build developments co-existing harmoniously alongside attractive Old City historic landmarks. The city is also renowned for its creative spaces and often plays host to a number of popular artistic festivals and events.

Description

The subject unit is located on Merchant Street and forms parts of Bristol's principal pedestrianised retail area. The property is close to Starbucks, Metro Bank, Primark and directly opposite TK Maxx.

Merchant Street is a key route linking The Horsefair and Broadmead, connecting Primark with Cabot Circus.
