Description

This delightful lock up shop is impeccably located in the heart of the bustling and ever-desirable Brick Lane. Currently set up as a florist and a mobile phone counter, the property is split into two equally desirable retail units benefiting from this prime location.

The units are run through one electricity meter which is inside the florists demise, there are no washroom facilities or running water and we understand that the tenants utilise facilities from the neighbouring properties.

Location

The property is located approximately half way up Brick Lane providing access to both Shoreditch High Street & Aldgate East. Princelet Street runs perpendicular to both Brick Lane and Commercial Street with an abundance of different retailers, offices and restaurants serving the area and the wider London crowds. Spitalfields, Liverpool Street & Aldgate are all within walking distance further increasing the desirability of this prime E1 location.
