Description

Ground floor retail premises connected internally at the front by the two separate entrances. The shop benefits from a large shop frontage with a good signage opportunity. It currently has laminated wooden flooring, spotlights and ceiling-mounted heaters. To the rear of the shop, there is one WC and a kitchenette. A fire escape is in place, which will lead you to the rear of Station Parade.

Location

Cookham is an affluent village situated in the county of Berkshire. Station Parade is situated in the heart of Cookham adjacent to the train station, which has frequent services to Maidenhead (Crossrail) and Marlow. Both Marlow & Maidenhead town centres are approx. A 10-minute drive, the A404(M) is nearby, providing access to the motorway network and Heathrow airport.

Viewings
