Description

49 Tabernacle Street is a newly refurbished, media-style office building, ideally positioned just a short walk from Old Street Station. The floor has been finished to an exceptional standard, blending contemporary design with practical functionality. Features include striking exposed brickwork, elegant wooden flooring, and well-appointed kitchens and bathrooms on every level. The third floor further benefits from dedicated shower facilities, enhancing convenience for occupiers.

Location

Old Street station is just around the corner, and you can walk to Liverpool Street or Moorgate without much effort, which makes commuting from pretty much anywhere in London straightforward. There are loads of buses passing through as well, and the area's great if you cycle or just prefer being on foot. Day to day, it's a pleasant spot to work, plenty of decent coffee, easy lunch options, and lots of places to go after work if you don't fancy heading straight home. It just feels like a convenient, well-connected place to be, with everything you need close by.
