LOCATION

The property is situated on the south side of Dumbarton Road, adjacent to its junction with Mansfield Street within the suburb of Partick at the west end's southernmost point. Situated within the modern "West 11" development, the area has seen extensive growth in recent years with the advancement of Glasgow University campus extension, multiple student accommodation developments in close proximity and high level of demand for residential space within the area have culminated in an increase demand for services in the area.

The area is characterised with traditional tenemental developments offering commercial units at ground floor with upper floors providing flatted residential dwellings throughout the locale. Neighbouring occupiers include; Crazy Wok, Tesco, Celino's, Betfred, The Quarter Gill and Bag O' Nails.

PROPERTY

The property forms a ground floor commercial space within a larger 4 storey mixed use development with prominent frontage secured by aluminium roller shutter.

The property benefits from being of modern steel framed construction, offering an open plan retailing space to the front with partitions erected to the rear forming staff tea prep, disabled w.c. changing rooms, store room and rear access to the private car park and loading facility.

The space is fitted out to a modern standard with floors have been overlaid in linoleum and carpet throughout with lighting provided. By way of L.E.D. panels recessed within the suspended acoustic tile ceiling.
