Key Investor Information

This document provides you with key investor information about this Fund. It is not marketing material. The information is required by law to help you understand the nature and the risks of investing in this Fund. You are advised to read it so you can make an informed decision about whether to invest.

Objectives and Investment Policy

The Fund's primary objective is to grow the amount invested over the long term through investment in Equities and Debt Securities of issuers around the world. This may include securities of issuers in developing countries (which may constitute more than 20% of Net Asset Value ("NAV") of the Fund). Investments in Russian securities are limited to 10% of NAV.

The Fund seeks to achieve its objective primarily through investing in Equities, typically comprising around 90% of NAV. The Fund may also invest in Debt Securities, typically not more than 10% of NAV. The amount of Debt Securities may be increased when market circumstances dictate.

The Investment Manager seeks to identify investments that will produce growth. Investment decisions are based on global economic developments, outlooks for securities markets, interest rates and inflation, supply and demand for Debt Securities and Equities and analysis of specific issuers.

Financial Derivative Instruments ("FDI") are utilised for the purposes of hedging currency risk and investment purposes.

The Fund is actively managed and is not constrained by any benchmark. However, the Fund uses the MSCI ACWI Net Total Return USD Index in the Fund's marketing materials to compare performance. Any income less expenses realised will be accumulated and reinvested into the NAV of the Fund.

Investors can buy or sell shares on any day on which banks in Dublin are open and the New York Stock Exchange is trading.

For full investment objective and policy details, please refer to the "Investment Objective" and "Investment Policies" sections of the Fund's supplement.

Recommendation: This Fund is not suitable for investors unable to maintain a long term investment.

Risk and reward profile

The Fund is in category 6 as the assets it holds have historically been subject to moderate to high levels of price fluctuation. The category shown is not guaranteed and may change over time. It is based partially on historical data of a similar fund of the Investment Manager, and may not be a reliable indication of future circumstances. The lowest category does not mean a risk free investment.

The Fund is exposed to additional risks not captured by the risk indicator including, without limitation:

Equities Risk: the values of Equities are subject to changes in the issuing company's financial condition and overall market and economic condition as well as market perception.

Debt Securities Risk: changes in interest rates and credit quality may have adverse consequences to the Fund. Below investment grade securities are more sensitive to economic, regulatory and social developments and have greater Liquidity Risk.

Currency Risk: changes in exchange rates may reduce or increase the value of non-U.S. Dollar denominated assets held by the Fund. Currency hedging may not be successful in mitigating such effects.

Developing Countries Risk: developing country securities are subject to greater social, political, regulatory, and currency risks than developed market securities. Certain countries, such as Russia and China, may also have greater risks of lack of investor protection, criminal activity and unclear tax regulations. This may impact the liquidity and value of such securities and, consequently, the value of the Fund.

Credit/Counterparty Risk: a party with whom the Fund contracts for securities or to safekeep the Fund's assets may fail to meet its obligations (e.g. fail to pay principal or interest or to settle an FDI) or become bankrupt, which may expose the Fund to a financial loss.

Liquidity Risk: the Fund may have difficulty buying or selling certain securities readily which may have a financial impact on the Fund.

FDI and Leverage Risk: in addition to Counterparty Risk, FDI may fluctuate in value rapidly and leverage embedded in FDI may cause losses that are greater than the original amount paid for the relevant FDI.

Operational Risk: human error, system and/or process failures, inadequate procedures or controls may cause losses to the Fund.

Class Currency Risks: Performance of unhedged classes may be affected by changes in exchange rates between the class currency and the U.S. Dollar.

These risk factors are not exhaustive. Please review the "Risk Factors" sections in the prospectus and supplement.

The ongoing charges figure is based on a commitment by the Investment Manager to limit the expenses paid by the Share Class. This commitment may be lifted at any time. The exact charges will be included in the financial statements for each year.

Past Performance

Performance data represents past performance and is no guarantee of future results. Investment return and principal value will fluctuate so shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Current performance may be lower or higher than quoted.

As the Class does not yet have one full calendar year of past performance, there is insufficient data to provide a useful indication of past performance to investors.
