I'm too scared, to let my guard come down

C G

F G C

So I drive on out of your life just like a clown

The closer that you get to me
The more I feel afraid
I've seen how quickly love can turn so sore
I know you think you'll rescue me
But I just can't be saved
I can't risk that heartache any more
And so I take refuge through that door

*I'm too scared, to let me love you
I'm too scared, to let my guard come down
I'm just too scared, to let me need you
So I drive on out of your life just like a clown*

Through all the love you've given me
My heart is in reverse
Strange how ancient wounds can be so set

And I know you've forgiven me
But that just makes it worse
I'm not a man who likes to feel in debt
When I haven't figured how to repay you yet

*I'm too scared, to let me love you
I'm too scared, to let my guard come down
I'm just too scared, to let me need you
So I drive on out of your life just like a clown*
