

AMER SPORTS CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

In its decision making and administration, Amer Sports Corporation (hereinafter referred to as “Amer Sports” or “the Company”) applies the Finnish Limited Liability Companies Act, the Finnish Securities Markets Act and the rules issued by Nasdaq Helsinki Ltd, Amer Sports’ Articles of Association, and the Finnish Corporate Governance Code 2015 for listed companies. Amer Sports complies with the code without exceptions. The code is published at www.cgfinland.fi.

This Corporate Governance Statement has been prepared pursuant to the Finnish Corporate Governance Code 2015 for listed companies and the Securities Markets Act (Chapter 7, Section 7) and it is issued separately from the Board of Directors’ report. The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors has reviewed this Corporate Governance Statement and the auditor Ernst & Young Oy has verified that the Statement has been issued and that the description of the main features of the internal control and risk management systems relating to the financial reporting process is consistent with the financial statements.

GENERAL

Pursuant to the provisions of the Finnish Limited Liability Companies Act and the Articles of Association of Amer Sports the responsibility for the control and management of Amer Sports is divided between the General Meeting of shareholders, the Board of Directors and the President and CEO. Shareholders participate in the control and management of Amer Sports through resolutions approved at General Meetings of shareholders, which convene upon notice given by the Board of Directors. In addition, General Meetings of shareholders may be held if requested in writing by an auditor of Amer Sports or by shareholders representing at least one-tenth of all shares of the Company.

Amer Sports’ shares are listed on Nasdaq Helsinki Ltd. In addition, Amer Sports has a Level I American Depositary Receipt (“ADR”) program. The ADRs are traded over-the-counter in the United States. Two depositary receipts are equivalent to one Amer Sports share.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Composition and Term of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors is responsible for duly organizing the administration and operations of Amer Sports. The Annual General Meeting of shareholders (“the AGM”) elects a minimum of five and a maximum of eight members of the Board of Directors for a term that ends at the close of the first Annual General Meeting following the election. There is no special order of appointment of the members. In accordance with the decision of the AGM held on March 9, 2017, the age limit for the election of members of the Board of Directors in Article 4 of the Articles of Association was removed. Article 4 of the Articles of Association had stated that a person who has reached the age of 66 at the time of election may not become a member of the Board of Directors.

The Board evaluates the independence of its members annually or, if necessary, more often. Each member of the Board of Directors is obligated to provide the Board of Directors with sufficient information to allow an evaluation of their independence.

The following members were elected to the Board of Directors at the AGM held on March 9, 2017:

The Board of Directors' Rules of Procedure and Meeting Practices

Amer Sports Board of Directors approves the rules of procedure to govern its work, including a meeting schedule, on an annual basis. The rules of procedure include the specific themes discussed at each meeting and discussion items reviewed at each meeting. The rules of procedure also include a schedule of the dates when the Board of Directors will visit the operations of the Company and its partners, as well as the annual evaluation of the Board of Directors' own performance at the end of the term. Committees established by the Board of Directors assist the Board of Directors in matters that have been assigned to them.

The Board of Directors convenes 8–10 times a year according to a predetermined annual meeting schedule and in addition when necessary. The President and CEO and the CFO participate in the meetings of the Board of Directors and the General Counsel acts as the secretary of the Board. The Board may invite other Amer Sports executives to participate in the meetings as necessary. At least once a year, the Board of Directors convenes without representatives of the Company's management in attendance.

Meeting documents and other material are delivered to the members of the Board of Directors in advance and all meetings are documented.

Main Duties of the Board of Directors

The duties and responsibilities of the Board of Directors are defined according to the Finnish Limited Liability Companies Act, other applicable legislation, and Amer Sports' Articles of Association. The Board of Directors has general authority in all matters where neither law nor the Company's Articles of Association stipulate that a matter should be decided or performed by any other bodies. In addition, the Board of Directors must act in the interests of the Company and all shareholders in all circumstances, and direct Amer Sports' operations with a view to generating the maximum enduring added value to shareholders without neglecting other stakeholders.

The main duties of the Board of Directors are to:

1. Decide on Amer Sports' strategy and business operations
 - Decide on the Company's strategy and ensure that it is up-to-date
 - Approve the business plans on the basis of the strategy and annual budget, and monitor achievements
 - Decide on significant, strategically important investments or acquisitions and the sale of assets
2. Amer Sports' administration and key functions
 - Appoint and dismiss the President and CEO
 - Appoint and dismiss the immediate subordinates of the President and CEO
 - Decide on the terms of service of the President and CEO and his or her immediate subordinates, including possible incentive programs
 - Set the President and CEO's personal targets for each year and monitor their achievement
 - Monitor management succession and human resources strategy
 - Evaluate the performance of the Board of Directors once a year
3. Supervise the management of financial administration, internal control and risk management
 - Review and approve interim reports, annual financial statements and the report by the Board of Directors as well as related stock exchange releases
 - Meet with the Company's auditors at least once a year
 - Oversee significant risks connected with the Company's operations and risk management
 - Oversee Corporate Social Responsibility strategy, policies and implementation
4. Prepare and approve proposals to be decided on at the AGM

According to the rules of procedure, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, in addition to leading the work of the Board of Directors, continuously monitors Amer Sports' operations and development through contact with the President and CEO. Furthermore, the Chairman represents the Company in matters associated with shareholders and ensures that the work of the Board of Directors is evaluated annually, and that the Board of Directors continuously updates and expands its knowledge of Amer Sports' operations.

In addition to its standard duties, the Board of Directors reviewed and discussed extensively the Company 2020 strategy and the related transformation and capability implications, including the evaluation of the portfolio composition for best value creation. The strategy was published ahead of the August 2017 Capital

Markets Day where Management presented the strategic choices, targets, and value creation model in detail. The Board of Directors also reviewed and revised the Company incentive programs to fully align them to the new strategic glidepath and value creation model.

The Annual General Meeting of shareholders held on March 9, 2017 elected seven members to the Amer Sports Board of Directors. The Annual General Meeting re-elected Bruno Sälzer, Ilkka Brotherus, Christian Fischer, Hannu Ryöppönen and Lisbeth Valther as members of the Board of Directors and elected Manel Adell and Tamara Minick-Scokalo as new members. The Board of Directors elected Bruno Sälzer as Chairman and re-elected Ilkka Brotherus as Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors.

The composition of the Board of Directors during the period of January 1, 2017 – March 9, 2017 was Anssi Vanjoki, Ilkka Brotherus, Martin Burkhalter, Christian Fischer, Hannu Ryöppönen, Bruno Sälzer, Lisbeth Valther and Indra Åsander.

The Board of Directors convened eleven times during the calendar year 2017 (three times before the AGM held on March 9, 2017 and eight times after the AGM). The attendance rate at meetings of the Board of Directors was as follows:

Name	Attendance rate (%)
Bruno Sälzer	100%

BOARD COMMITTEES

The Board of Directors has established three permanent Committees to assist the Board of Directors in the matters assigned to them and has defined the rules of procedure for the Committees. The Board of Directors elects the members and Chairmen of the Committees amongst its members in the beginning of the term. The Committees shall regularly report on its work to the Board of Directors. The Committees have no independent decision-making power.

Audit Committee

Audit Committee supervises the Company's financial administration. The Audit Committee comprises a minimum of three members of the Board of Directors. The members must be independent and have the qualifications necessary to perform the duties of the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee meets at least four times per year and maintains regular contact with the Company's external auditor. The Audit Committee monitors the reporting of the Company's financial statements and the adequacy of internal control and risk management systems. Audit Committee organizes the auditor selection process and monitors compliance with the rotation rules. Audit committee pre-approves permissible non-audit services and monitors the cap on the permissible services. In addition, the Audit Committee monitors the statutory audit process, evaluates the independence of the statutory audit firm, and prepares the recommendation presented to the Annual General Meeting on the election of the auditor.

In 2017, in addition to its regular duties, the Audit Committee reviewed the implementation of the new risk management process, expected changes in corporate tax environment and development of the Company's financial forecasting process. The Audit Committee also performed a finance function capability review.

On March 9, 2017, the Board of Directors elected Hannu Ryöppönen (Chairman), Christian Fischer, Bruno Sälzer and Lisbeth Valther as members of the Audit Committee. The composition of the Audit Committee during the period of January 1, 2017 – March 9, 2017 was Hannu Ryöppönen (Chairman), Martin Burkhalter, Christian Fischer and Lisbeth Valther. The Audit Committee convened five times in 2017 (one meeting before the AGM held on March 9, 2017 and four meetings after the AGM) and the meeting attendance rate was as follows:

Lisbeth Valther	100%
Martin Burkhalter	100%	(January 1, 2017 – March 9, 2017)

Compensation and Human Resources Committee

Compensation and Human Resources Committee ensures good governance in monitoring executive rewards, gives guidance on Amer Sports' reward philosophy and executive reward programs, assesses pay and performance relationships and recommends executive pay decisions concerning the President and CEO and his immediate direct reports for approval by the Board of Directors. In addition, the Committee gives guidance on succession planning and top talent identification and ensures development of competencies in line with succession planning. The Compensation and Human Resources Committee comprises a minimum of three members of the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Committee convenes meetings as required, but at least twice a year.

In 2017, the Compensation and Human Resources Committee focused on further development of executive compensation programs with special focus on updating the Long Term Incentive Program, as well as succession plans and leadership & capability development.

On March 9, 2017, the Board of Directors elected Lisbeth Valther (Chairman), Manel Adell, Ilkka Brotherus and Tamara Minick-Scokalo as members of the Committee. The composition of the Compensation and Human Resources Committee during the period of January 1, 2017 – March 9, 2017 was Indra Åsander (Chairman), Ilkka Brotherus, Bruno Sälzer and Anssi Vanjoki. The Compensation and Human Resources Committee convened five times in 2017 (one meeting before the AGM held on March 9, 2017 and four meetings after the AGM) and the meeting attendance rate was as follows:

Name	Attendance rate (%)

Anssi Vanjoki	100%	(January 1, 2017 – March 9, 2017)

Diversity of the Board of Directors

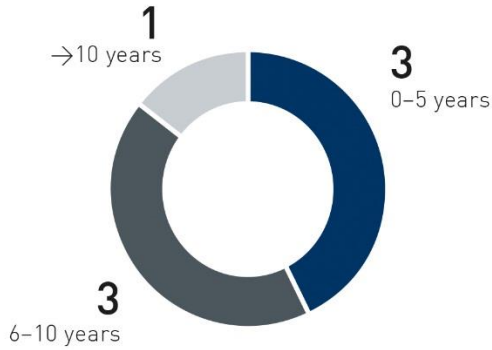

The Nomination Committee values the benefits that diversity brings and seeks to maintain a Board of Directors comprised of talented and dedicated members with a diverse mix and an appropriate balance of professional expertise, experience, skills, age, gender, nationalities and backgrounds. The Committee shall consider candidates for members on the basis of their merits with consideration of the needs in the Board of Directors having due regard to the benefits of diversity. Based on these principles, the Committee aims to ensure skills and qualifications which collectively represented in the Board of Directors shall provide an appropriate balance of diversity, expertise and experience to maintain and enhance the overall effectiveness of the Board of Directors.

Amer Sports Board of Directors comprises seven members. The cultural background of the Board members is diverse: they represent six different nationalities. In addition, their length of service is spread: one member has served in Amer Sports Board of Directors for more than 10 years, three for 6-10 years and three for less than five years. The Board members have significant experience in brand building, softgoods, fashion, consumer goods, retail, digital, international business including the US and China, and financial management.

The objective is to have both genders represented in the Board of Directors and the aim is to strive towards an appropriately balanced gender distribution. At the end of 2017, two of the Board members were female and five male.

MAIN FEATURES OF THE INTERNAL CONTROL AND RISK MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS RELATING TO THE FINANCIAL REPORTING PROCESS

The Board of Directors of Amer Sports approves and endorses the Company's Risk Management Policy. This policy defines the objectives, principles, processes and responsibilities concerning risk management within Amer Sports companies.

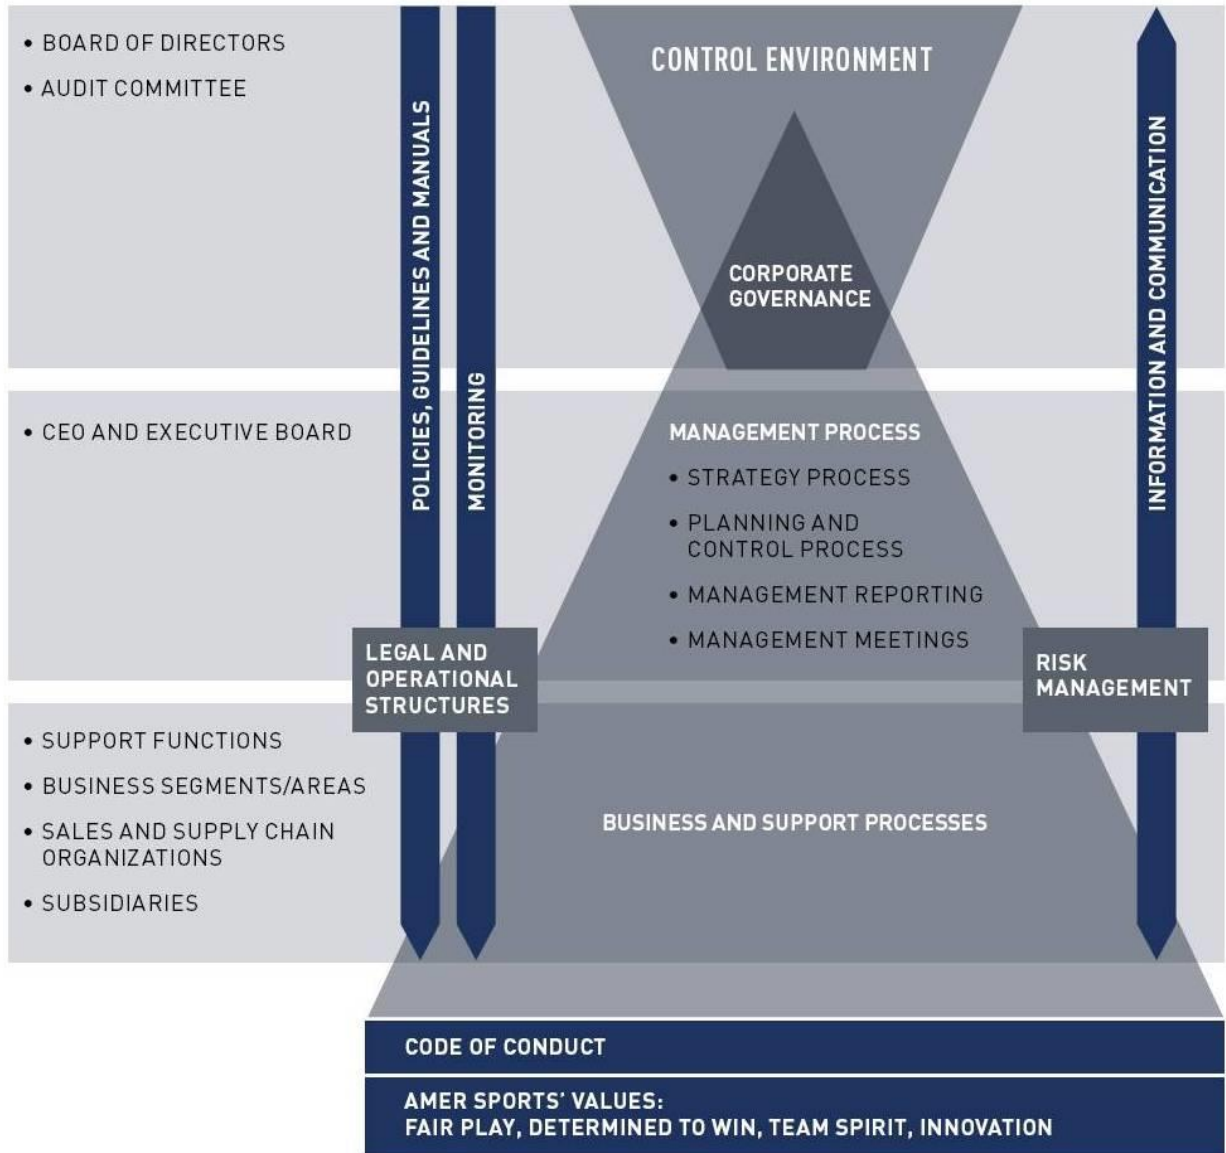

The risk management process is embedded in the business management in order to support the accomplishment of the Company's strategic business targets and financial reporting objectives. Responsibility for risk management rests with Amer Sports' operating segments/areas, sales and supply chain organizations and support functions, all of which report regularly to Amer Sports management on the main risks connected with their operations. The management of financial risks is centralized within the Company's Treasury function. Guidelines for risk management are set out in the Treasury Policy, which is approved by the Board of Directors and encompasses the principles and risk limits connected with the Company's balance sheet structure, relationships with financial institutions and other financing risks.

Amer Sports has three reportable operating segments: Outdoor, Ball Sports and Fitness. In overseeing the Company's operations, the President and CEO and other executives utilize weekly sales reports, monthly financial reports, and regular meetings with the management teams of operating segments/areas and regions.

Financial reporting is carried out in a harmonized manner in all Group companies. Amer Sports' accounting policies are based on the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS). In addition to IFRS, more specific group policies and guidance are provided in the Company's accounting policies manual (Corporate Manual). The Finance function is responsible for maintaining the Company's accounting policies and reporting systems, and also monitors to ensure that these reporting policies are followed. The Group's operating segments are responsible for providing their own financial statements. The Finance function provides consolidated financial statements.

Amer Sports has implemented a group-wide ERP (Enterprise Resource Planning) system in most of its entities. This includes a harmonized chart of accounts and structures enabling a more efficient control environment. The Finance function is responsible for monitoring the implementation of any further SAP rollouts. Amer Sports Risk Management framework includes internal controls over financial reporting that are aligned with the framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations (COSO). There are five main components in this framework: Control Environment, Risk Assessment, Control Activities, Information and Communication, and Monitoring Activities.

AMER SPORTS INTERNAL CONTROL FRAMEWORK

Control Environment

Amer Sports values and Code of Conduct support and guide the Company’s operations around the world, providing a foundation for the control environment. The Board of Directors has overall responsibility for ensuring that an effective system of internal control and risk management is established. The Audit Committee oversees that risk management activities are in line with the Company’s Risk Management Policy. The responsibility for maintaining the internal control and risk management system is delegated to the President and CEO and to the Executive Board.

Risk Assessment

As part of Amer Sports risk management process, risks related to the business environment and operational and financial risks are identified, assessed and prioritized on an annual basis. Financial reporting priorities are defined by the Finance function to enable the identification and adequate management of risks.

Control Activities

Amer Sports operating segments/areas, sales and supply chain organizations and support functions are responsible for aligning the Group's risk management priorities and strategies with Amer Sports management processes. Amer Sports support functions issue policies and guidelines for specific areas such as finance, accounting, purchasing, sales, IT, HR, and legal compliance. Operating segments/areas and sales and supply chain organizations and support functions are responsible for applying these policies and guidelines to achieve efficient and appropriate controls on the basis of their individual circumstances and operational contexts. Risk management and control activities are designed to mitigate identified risks while giving due consideration to the cost and potential effectiveness of control activities. Amer Sports Treasury function monitors the implementation of the Company's Treasury Policy within operating segments/areas and subsidiaries.

Amer Sports Corporate Manual and Internal Control Policies set standards for financial procedures. Financial control activities are designed to prevent, detect, and correct errors and irregularities and include a range of activities such as reporting, authorizations, approvals, reconciliations, and the segregation of duties.

Amer Sports Internal Control Policies harmonize and clarify rules and procedures by setting and communicating the expected minimum requirements that fall within the remit of internal controls. Property, loss-of-profits and liability risks arising out of the operations of Amer Sports companies are covered by taking out appropriate insurance policies. In addition to worldwide insurance programs, local policies are used when special legislation-related needs exist.

Information and Communication

The components of Amer Sports' risk management and internal control system are described in various manuals, instructions and policies. These are communicated throughout the Group and stored in the Amer Sports intranet, which is accessible to Amer Sports employees. Amer Sports Corporate Manual defines, among other items, the planning and control process, reporting and accounting policies, and the role of the Amer Sports Treasury function. Taxation issues are covered in a range of instruction documents and guidelines. Amer Sports Internal Control Policy provides further information and establishes the expected minimum requirements regarding, among others, the authorization matrix, capital expenditure, and credit control policy. Operating segments/areas, sales and supply chain organizations and subsidiaries regularly provide Amer Sports management with financial and management reports, including analyses of financial performance as well as potential risks and opportunities.

Monitoring Activities

The performance of Amer Sports companies is reviewed regularly at different organizational levels. Representatives of Amer Sports Finance function regularly visit the Company's businesses to carry out operational reviews. The Group Internal Control function adheres to the Internal Control Charter, approved by the Audit Committee, which stipulates the mission and scope of work for this function. The Group Internal Control function visits the Company's businesses to perform operational reviews and monitor compliance with internal control procedures, policies and guidelines according to an agreed plan.

Risk reporting is integrated into both the Operational Planning and Control Cycle and the Strategic Review Cycle management processes. Amer Sports operating segments/areas, sales and supply chain organizations and support functions report regularly on risk exposures and related mitigation efforts to the relevant management board.

The Board of Directors supervises significant risks connected with Amer Sports operations and evaluates the effectiveness of risk management activities.

The Risk Management Steering Team is responsible for overall development of the risk management process within Amer Sports, including the facilitation of Group level risk mapping.

Internal Audit

In Amer Sports the internal audit activities are performed by the Group Internal Control function, consisting of two persons. Additionally external resources are used to support specific tasks depending on the focus area in question. The Group Internal Control function has direct access to the Audit Committee, attends the Audit Committee meetings and reports regularly on the work performed and on findings to the Committee. The purpose of the Group Internal Control function is to ensure a systematic and disciplined approach to evaluate and improve the effectiveness of risk management, internal control system and governance processes. To support the current development with strong focus on harmonization and consolidation of Amer Sports' functions and processes, the Group Internal Control function also provides internal advisory services and shares best practices.

Amer Sports Group Internal Control function analyzed the efficiency and adequacy of internal control in the Group's operations and evaluated the governance, internal control and risk management processes in the Company's businesses. There has been a continuous focus on the transition of activities to the financial shared service center opened in Poland in 2011. An additional focus area during 2017 has been to develop automated control testing capabilities.

External Audit

According to the Company's Articles of Association, Amer Sports has one auditor who shall be an audit firm.

The independent auditor engaged by Amer Sports is responsible for directing and coordinating audit work within all Amer Sports companies. The Audit Committee prepares a recommendation for the Annual General Meeting regarding the election of the auditor. The Annual General Meeting elects the auditor annually and for a period of one financial year.

The Company's auditor submits a written report on the audit to the Audit Committee and the Board of Directors once a year. The principal auditor presents a summary of the annual audit in person at the Board of Directors meeting at which the financial statements for the fiscal year are discussed. Auditors are invited to each of the Audit Committee's meetings and provide updates on how the Group audit is progressing and other findings.

In 2017, the Annual General Meeting re-elected Authorized Public Accountant firm Ernst & Young Oy to act as auditor of the Company. The principally responsible auditor is Mikko Järventausta.

Insider guidelines

Amer Sports' Insider Policy is based on the Finnish Securities Markets Act, Regulation (EU) no 596/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council on market abuse ("MAR") and so called 2- and 3-tier EU-regulation which supplement MAR, the Finnish Financial Supervisory Authority's ("FSA") regulations and guidelines regarding insider issues and issuer's obligation to provide information, Nasdaq Helsinki Ltd's Guidelines for Insiders of Listed Companies and the Finnish Criminal Code. The Insider Policy includes regulations on insiders, the prohibition of the abuse and illegitimate disclosure of inside information, notification and publication of transactions of Company Executives and their closely associated persons, closed period concerning Company Executives and certain core persons, project-specific insider lists as well as securities trading by employees through trading plans.

Amer Sports prepares and maintains a list of all persons discharging managerial responsibilities in the Company (“Company Executives”) and their closely associated persons, as set forth in MAR. The list is not open to public and share and/or other financial instrument ownership is not registered in it. Company Executives and their closely associated persons shall notify the Company and the FSA all the transactions they have conducted on their own account relating to the shares or debt instruments of Amer Sports Corporation or to derivatives or other financial instruments linked thereto. The Company shall publish the transactions of the Company Executives or their closely associated persons without delay once it has received the notification and at the latest within three business days since the transaction was concluded, and store the releases in the Central Storage Facility.

Project-specific insiders

Persons to whom the Company discloses project-specific inside information shall be entered in a project-specific insider list. Persons in the project list may include, e.g., employees and Board members of the Company, advisors of the Company as well as shareholders and authorities to whom the Company discloses project-specific inside information.

Project-specific insiders are classified for the duration of a project. In general, persons entered in the list are prohibited from all trading in Amer Sports shares or other financial instruments or thereto related derivatives from the moment they were notified of the restriction until the project ends or is made public. Regardless of the time when the trading restriction comes into effect, a project-specific insider is always personally responsible for complying with insider provisions. A project-specific register of insiders is not public, but the FSA has the right to obtain and use information related to the Company’s administration of project-specific inside information.

Closed period

A Company Executive or a core person, such as a person preparing the interim or year-end reports, shall not trade or conduct any transactions relating to a financial instrument of the Company, on its own account or for the account of a third party, directly or indirectly, during the time between the end of a quarter or a financial year and the publication of corresponding interim report or year-end report. However, the trading is always prohibited for a period of 30 calendar days before the announcement of an interim report or a year-end report and also on the day of the publication of an interim report or a year-end report (closed period).

Supervision

Amer Sports’ General Counsel is responsible for appropriate communications regarding the Company’s insider compliance and the maintenance of insider affairs.
