Society of Antiquaries of London,

7 July 1830.

By Order of the PRESIDENT,

A COUNCIL is appointed to meet at the Apartments of the said Society, in SOMERSET HOUSE, on MONDAY the 17th Day of JULY 1830, at Two of the Clock precisely, at which the Favour of your Attendance is expected.

N. Carlisle,
Secretary.
Somerset Place,
SOCIETY OF ANTIQUARIES OF LONDON.

SIR,

I am to inform you, that the Anniversary Election of the President, Council, and Officers of this Society, for the Year ensuing, will be at their Meeting-Room, in Somerset Place, on Monday, the 23rd of April, 1832, at which the favour of your attendance is expected. The Ballot will open at Two of the Clock, and Close at Three.

And, for your better information with respect to the mode of Balloting, you are to take Notice, that Three Lists are to be delivered in by you; the First of which is to contain the Names of such Eleven Members of the present Council, as you may choose to be continued on the New Council; the Second, the Names of such Ten Members out of the rest of the Body of the Society, as you choose to be of the New Council; Third, the Names of such Members as you choose to be President, Treasurer, Secretaries, and Director. In all which Lists the Names of the Persons voted for, are to be distinguished by lines drawn under them.

As it is usual for the Society to celebrate their Anniversary by Dining together, the honour of your Company is therefore particularly requested on this occasion, at the Freemasons' Tavern, in Great Queen Street. Dinner to be on the Table at half-after Five of the Clock precisely.

\[\text{Aberdeen}\]
President.

P. S. By order of the Council, no Servants are to attend at the Dinner, except those of the President, Vice-Presidents, Officers, and all Peers.
