From birth, for life,
on every adventure

Sleep Sakes is a stunning character-led collection of gorgeous keepsakes and home décor, with the added benefit of promoting wellness and healthy sleep.

It's easy to fall in love with the 8 character designs. All plush toys are EN71 certified as safe from birth, so you really can make a companion for life.

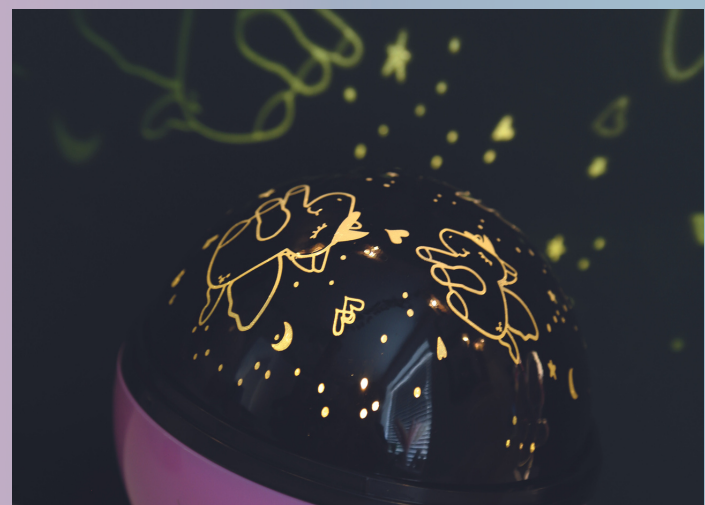

Within the character collection, there are three super soft pastel multicoloured plush toys; Elephant, Teddy Bear and Rabbit. These would make a wonderful baby gift.

There is also a snuggly green Monster, fearsome pink Dragon, and magical rainbow Unicorn. Finally, our brave and fearless Lion and Leopard.

Once you have chosen your friend, you can purchase a matching 2 in 1 night light, LED rotating projector, string lights, and money box!

But that isn't where the magic of this collection ends. Read on to find out about the calming sleep benefits of our personal care products.

Wellness & Sleep

Sleep Sakes is a brand with its heart in wellness. The soothing pillow and plush mist can be applied directly to the cuddly characters which increases their comforting effect.

The chamomile infused bath bombs and sprays encourage calm and relaxation, as well as, creating a subconscious link between your chosen fragrance and comfort it brings.

There are 10 fragrances in the spray and 4 beautiful bath bombs.

The benefits of chamomile

Chamomile has been a prized plant for centuries because of its potential to calm emotions. Its use before bed and in a bath can soothe both mind and body, stress relieving properties can ease worry and relax a busy mind. In aromatherapy it is also used to relieve pain by easing tension and muscle aches.

Sleep Sakes products are perfect for all the family to improve sleep and ease anxiety.
