The Giving in Memory Fund

A unique way to celebrate & commemorate

We receive many welcome requests from visitors wishing to honour a friend or relative who in their lifetime enjoyed and loved the Botanic Garden.

For many years we have operated a programme of memorial benches. As appropriate sites arise only very rarely, the waiting list for memorial benches is now very long and currently closed.

As an alternative, we have established the Giving in Memory Fund. Each gift to this vital Fund helps support our work in conserving a heritage landscape, in creating new plantings to inspire and enchant, and in developing new opportunities for visitors to enjoy and learn about plants. Contributing to our Giving in Memory Fund is a wonderful, creative and enduring way to connect those you love with the place they loved in celebration and commemoration.

Supporting the Botanic Garden

The Giving in Memory Fund is the life force behind many new developments at the Garden, and has recently helped us to create a new Arid Lands planting in the Glasshouse Range, to augment our fern collections and to establish a new activity library for visiting families.

For major gifts of over £1000, we will be delighted to discuss the current priority projects in detail with you and keep you informed of their progress.

The Book of Benefactions

All donors to the Giving in Memory Fund will have their name and the name of their friend or relative recorded in a Book of Benefactions held in 1, Brookside at the Botanic Garden. The Book of Benefactions is a lasting record of the myriad ways in which the Botanic Garden enriches and supports the lives of its visitors, and can be viewed by appointment at any time during Garden opening hours.

Many of our supporters feel that donations to the Botanic Garden given in place of funeral flowers provide an appropriate way to honour a loved one. Such gifts are also credited to the Giving in Memory Fund.
