

THE HENLEY CENTRE FOR COACHING & BEHAVIOURAL CHANGE

BE EXCEPTIONAL. THE HENLEY WAY.

The Henley Centre for Coaching & Behavioural Change is a vibrant virtual-learning community, which shapes leading-edge thinking around coaching and behavioural change.

What the centre can offer you

The Centre is a practitioner-driven community where you, as a member, will co-determine its agenda and activities.

You will be offered masterclasses, conferences and snapshot sessions about the hot topics that you choose.

Stay abreast of all the latest thinking and developments in coaching through journals and newsfeed of curated highlights.

You will be able to contribute your thinking to the evolution and professionalisation of our coaching discipline through online discussions.

Becoming a member

Membership of the Centre is for alumni of Henley-accredited coaching programmes: the Henley Professional Certificate in Coaching and Henley MSc in Coaching and Behavioural Change.

Key benefits of membership include:

- a dedicated platform to stay in touch with Henley and with each other
- the facility to hold virtual conversations, to explore and develop new ideas together
- bi-annual journals bringing you the latest thinking
- newsfeeds which curate of-the-moment insights and inspiration
- access to top academics and industry specialists
- priority booking and alumni discount at centre events
- access to the ARC online

The Centre picks up where your programme ends...

The 2016 calendar of events includes:

Masterclasses

Continuing professional development with leading experts in their field. Typically whole-day events, run at Henley.

Snapshot sessions

A new and very popular format, with a two hour (15.00-17.00) hot-topic snapshot session, followed by access to syndicate rooms for supervision group meetings and a buffet supper.

Conference

Taking a leading topic in the current business environment and exploring it through well-known key note speakers, with input from Henley research and plenty of time to network.

Supervision

Open-access supervision group sessions run by one of our Henley qualified supervisors.

All the Centre's events are open to non-members; however, as a member you will receive priority booking for these events, as well as your 10% alumni discount.

Fees

Membership is available to Henley Coaching alumni. Annual membership is £45 + VAT. Go to www.henley.ac.uk/coachingcentre to join

The Director of the Centre

Dr Patricia Bossons

Patricia is Director of the Centre for Coaching & Behavioural Change at Henley, within which she teaches on the Professional Certificate in Coaching, the MSc in Coaching & Behavioural Change and a range of corporate programmes. Her work is primarily in the area of Executive Education, designing, developing and delivering coaching, leadership and personal development programmes. Patricia is a Chartered Psychologist and Associate Fellow of the British Psychological Society. Her research interests include personality and individual differences, and coaching in different cultures around the globe. Her recent book is titled 'the Neuroscience of Leadership Coaching', which was written alongside Professor Patricia Riddell and Denis Sartain.

What our community says about our programmes

“For me, one of the biggest pluses of doing a course at Henley has been the incredible – and unexpected – level of pastoral care and support that you and your colleagues (in all roles) provide. There is a lot of warmth, and it is both personalised and authentic.”

Very few service businesses succeed at this. Henley does.”
