

Privacy Notice for MPL Employment Candidates

1 The purpose of this notice

This notice tells you what personal data Marston Properties collects about you, why we need it, how we use it and what protections are in place to keep it secure.

It is Marston Properties policy to:

- Process your personal information fairly and in accordance with GDPR law
- Tell you about how we will use your personal information
- Only collect personal information from you when we need it for legitimate purposes, or legal reasons
- Ensure that personal information held is relevant and not excessive for the purpose for which it is obtained
- Not keep your personal information for longer than we need to
- Keep your personal information secure, and limit the people who can access it
- Ensure that you know how to access your personal information and exercise your rights in relation to it, including being able to keep it accurate and up-to-date
- Ensure that any third parties we share your personal information with take appropriate steps to protect it.

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Protection Notice, then we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. For the purpose of the legislation and your personal data, Marston Properties Limited is the Data Controller and the Directors can be contacted at 1 Mills Yard, Fulham London SW6 3AQ.

2 Collecting your personal data

Marston Properties collects and processes personal data relating to its employment candidates to manage the recruitment process. The organisation is committed to being transparent about how it collects and uses that data.

There are 6 lawful bases of processing your data being consent, a legitimate interest, contract fulfilment, a legal obligation, public interest and a vital interest. For each usage of the data the lawful basis of the processing of your data will be identified below. A legitimate interest is when we have a business or commercial reason to process your personal data which needs to be balanced with your interests i.e. what is right and best for you.

We may obtain your personal data from third party agencies that you have registered with and given permission to share your data.

| Requirements | Data held includes | Legal Basis |
|---|--|---------------------|
| Information to identify you | Name, address, Date of Birth | Contract Fulfilment |
| Information to contact you | Telephone number, email address | Contract Fulfilment |
| Information about your suitability to work for us | Application form, CV and information provided in candidate | Contract Fulfilment |

| | | |
|---|--|--|
| | covering letters, Interview tests, Qualification details, Education and professional certificates Psychometric profile reports Disclosure and Barring Service Reports (Criminal records data) References | Consent Consent Consent |
| Information about health and medical considerations | Information about medical or health conditions, including whether you have a disability for which we need to make reasonable adjustments | Consent |
| Equal Opportunities monitoring | Information about gender and nationality | Consent |

3 Using your personal data

Marston Properties needs to process your data to manage the business, to comply with current employment legislation and to find new employees.

Processing your data enables us to:

- Invite candidates to interview
- Assess suitability of candidates
- Identify if we need to make reasonable adjustments
- Update candidates on whether their applications have been successful

4 Sharing your personal data

Your information will be shared internally with the Managing Director, the Financial Director, your line manager, authorised personnel involved in the recruitment process and the Office & Communications Manager. Your information may also be shared with The Marston Properties group companies but will only be used in line with this privacy notice.

Marston Properties also shares your relevant data with third party companies that need to process personal data to provide services to us. This includes:

- HR consultancy services
- DISC profiling suppliers
- Confidential Waste Disposal companies
- IT support and software service providers

We will ensure that any third parties we share your personal information with take appropriate steps to protect it.

5 Protecting your personal data

Your hard copy personal data is stored in locked cabinets. Electronic data is stored on servers and on software systems which are local and cloud based. The back-ups are encrypted and stored with a third party. Marston Properties Limited regularly reviews the security of these systems and holds a Cyber Essentials Security Certificate. We have internal policies in place to try to ensure that your data is not lost, accidentally destroyed, misused or disclosed. This is controlled by only granting access to authorised personnel to fulfil their roles.

Data held by Marston Properties Ltd is stored within the European Union. The information you share with us may be transferred by us or any of the types of firms or organisations we have noted above, to other countries for processing to take place, including locations outside of the UK and the European Union. We will only do so if there are adequate levels of protection in place as required by applicable data protection laws.

6 Keeping your personal data

Marston Properties Limited holds different categories of personal data for different periods of time.

We will keep your personal data for as long as you are an employment candidate of Marston Properties Ltd and then in accordance with our Retention of Personal Data Policy. Wherever possible we will endeavour to minimise the amount of personal data held and will only use it for those purposes.

Successful applicants will be asked for additional person details as part of the new employee onboarding process and provided with the Marston Properties Employees privacy notice.

7 Cookies and tracking

The Marston Properties website and applications may collect anonymous data about how you use our services to help us improve future functionality.

Marston Properties use Google Analytics, which is a web analysis service provided by Google. No data that personally identifies an individual (such as a name, email address or billing information) is tracked, collected or uploaded. Marston Properties may collect and report on the adoption and usage of specific features, crashes and exceptions and other useful, anonymous metrics.

8 Your rights

As a data subject, you have a number of rights. You can:

- Access and obtain a copy of your data on request
- Require the organisation to update incorrect or incomplete data
- Require erasure of your data when consent is our basis of processing (the right to be forgotten). You may request that your personal data be erased, for example, where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing or where you withdraw consent. We will comply with your request unless we have another basis of processing justifying our retaining the data (for example a legal requirement or the defence of a legal claim).
- Ask the organisation to stop processing data periodically if data is inaccurate or there is a dispute about whether or not your interests override the organisation's legitimate grounds for processing data.
- Where the lawful basis for processing is your consent, you may withdraw consent at any time by writing to: Noreen Tapp, Marston Properties Ltd, 1 Mills Yard, London SW6 3AQ or emailing nstapp@marstonproperties.co.uk

9. Changes to this privacy notice

We keep our privacy notice under regular review and will post updated versions on our website.