

ODEON awarded 'HR Team of the Year' at Personnel Today Awards 2016

23 November 2016

ODEON & UCI Cinemas were victorious in the 'HR Team of the Year' category at last night's Personnel Today awards.

Judges noted the Group's achievements in developing a clear vision and set of values communicated across territories to develop a sense of collective purpose, creating the Ask-Listen-Plan-Act approach to reviewing feedback and the creation of 'Our Colleague Journey' outlining a commitment to colleagues at every stage of their career and offering a clear 'deal.'

Judges commented that ODEON & UCI Cinemas have a "Very impressive approach to connecting HR activities with improved outcomes for the company."

This represents the second HR Team of the Year award won this year, as just last month ODEON & UCI Cinemas were awarded 'HR Team of the Year' at the CIPD awards.
